Cross and Tapper on Evidence Colin Tapper 2007 Cross and Tapper on Evidence discusses the theory and practice of this field, and provides criticism and comment on the law, drawing on numerous recent cases to illustrate the workings of the law. Neurologische Notfälle Jens Litmathe 2016-10-07 Das Werk beschreibt die Akutdiagnostik und Akuttherapie der wichtigsten neurologischen Notfallsituationen, wie Stroke, TIA, intrakranielle Blutungen, Krampfanfälle, Meningitis, Enzephalitis, Bewusstseinsstörungen, Schwindel und Synkopen. Das Buch gliedert sich dabei in präklinische und innerklinische Akutversorgung und ist damit ein idealer Begleiter sowohl für präklinisch tätige Notärzte als auch für Ärzte, die innerklinisch neurologische Notfälle versorgen, z.B. in zentralen bzw. interdisziplinären Notaufnahmen. Auch auf häufig vorkommende neurologische Notfälle bei Kindern geht das Werk ein, ebenso wie auf psychiatrische Notfälle, Bildgebung und Interventionen im Notfall. Zahlreiche Tipps und ein Frage-Quiz zur Selbstkontrolle machen das Buch besonders praxisnah.

Conjunctive Markers of Contrast in English and French Maité Dupont 2021-06-15 Situated at the interface between corpus linguistics and Systemic Functional Linguistics, this volume focuses on conjunctive markers expressing contrast in English and French. The frequency and placement patterns of the markers are analysed using large corpora of texts from two written registers: newspaper editorials and research articles. The corpus study revisits the long-standing but largely unsubstantiated claim that French requires more explicit markers of cohesive conjunction than English and shows that the opposite is in fact the case. Novel insights into the placement preferences of English and French conjunctive markers are provided by a new approach to theme and rheme that attaches more importance to the rheme than previous studies. The study demonstrates the significant benefits of a combined corpus and Systemic Functional Linguistics approach to the cross-linguistic analysis of cohesion.

Affekt Macht Netz Rainer Mühlhoff 2019-07-31 Shitstorms, Hate Speech oder virale Videos, die zum Klicken, Liken, Teilen bewegen: Die vernetzte Gesellschaft ist von Affekten getrieben und bringt selbst ganz neue Affekte hervor. Die Beiträge des Bandes nehmen die medientechnologischen Entwicklungen unserer Zeit in den Blick und untersuchen sie aus der Perspektive einer kritischen Affekt- und Sozialphilosophie. Sie zeigen: Soziale Medien und digitale Plattformen sind nicht nur Räume des Austauschs, sie erschaffen Affektökonomien - und darin liegt auch ihre Macht. Indem sie neue Formen des sozialen Umgangs stiften und bestimmen, wie wir kommunizieren, verschieben sie auch die politische Topographie. Mit einem Beitrag von Antonio Negri.

Konsistenz-Theorien, kognitive Ansätze) oder soziologisch (z.B. Two-Step-Flow, Diffusions- und Innovationsforschung) orientiert sind. Darüber hinaus geht der Autor auch ausführlich auf neuere Perspektiven wie Uses-and-Gratifications, Informationsverarbeitung, Agenda-Setting, Wissensklüftperspektive oder Kultivierungstheorie ein. Die komplexen Zusammenhänge werden durch eine Vielzahl von Graphiken veranschaulicht, zahlreiche Literaturhinweise, ein Glossar, sowie ein Sachwortregister erleichtern den Zugang zum Thema. Legalism Paul Dresch 2012-08-30 Law and law-like institutions are visible in human societies very distant from each other in time and space. When it comes to observing and analysing such social constructs historians, anthropologists, and lawyers run into notorious difficulties in how to conceptualize them. Do they conform to a single category of 'law'? How are divergent understandings of the nature and purpose of law to be described and explained? Such questions reach to the heart of philosophical attempts to understand the nature of law, but arise whenever we are confronted by law-like practices and concepts in societies not our own. In this volume leading historians and anthropologists with an interest in law gather to analyse the nature and meaning of law in diverse societies. They start from the concept of legalism, taken from the anthropologist Lloyd Fallers, whose 1960s work on Africa engaged, unusually, with jurisprudence. The concept highlights appeal to categories and rules. The degree to which legalism in this sense informs people's lives varies within and between societies, and over time, but it can colour equally both 'simple' and 'complex' law. Breaking with recent emphases on 'practice', nine specialist contributors explore, in a wide-ranging set of cases, the place of legalism in the workings of social life. The essays make obvious the need to question our parochial common sense where ideals of moral order at other times and places differ from those of modern North Atlantic governance. State-centred law, for instance, is far from a 'central case'. Legalism may be 'aspirational', connecting people to wider visions of morality; duty may be as prominent a theme as rights; and rulers from thirteenth-century England to sixteenth-century Burma appropriate, as much they impose, a vision of justice as consistency. The use of explicit categories and rules does not reduce to simple questions of power. The cases explored range from ancient Asia Minor to classical India, and from medieval England and France to Saharan oases and southern Arabia. In each case they assume no knowledge of the society or legal system discussed. The volume will appeal not only to historians and anthropologists with an interest in law, but to students of law engaged in legal theory, for the light it sheds on the strengths and limitations of abstract legal philosophy.

Nordic Noir, Adaptation, Appropriation Linda Badley 2020-05-06 This book argues that adaptation is an underrecognized yet constitutive element of Nordic noir. In so doing, it reframes the prevailing critical view. Now celebrated for its global sweep, Nordic noir is equally a transmedial phenomenon. Nordic Noir, Adaptation, Appropriation deploys the tools of current adaptation studies to undertake a wide-ranging transcultural, intermedial exploration, adding an important new layer to the rich scholarship that has arisen around Nordic noir in recent years.

Towards a Comparative Political Economy of Unfree Labour Dr Tom Brass 2015-12-22 Many works about agrarian change in the Third World assume that unfree relations are to be eliminated in the course of capitalist development. This text argues that the incidence of bonded labour is greater than supposed, and that in certain situations rural employers prefer an unfree workforce.
